

GREENBERG GIBBONS

Contact: Matt Mittenthal, mmittenthal@ggcomercial.com or (410) 493-8884

Walmart at Dorchester Square to Become a Supercenter

Owings Mills, Md. (May, 2011) — Greenberg Gibbons announced today that the existing Walmart at Dorchester Square will expand to become a 151,000-square-foot Walmart Supercenter this spring.

The expanded store will offer a full selection of groceries and value-priced merchandise under one roof. Other amenities will include a pharmacy, portrait studio and tire shop.

“Walmart Supercenters offer one-stop family shopping and services at a great value,” says Matt Mittenthal, asset manager at Greenberg Gibbons. “We are excited to offer this kind of convenience at Dorchester Square.”

Dorchester Square is a 26-acre shopping center in Cambridge, Maryland, located at the intersection of Maryland Route 50 and Route 16. The new Walmart Supercenter will join a mix of retailers, restaurants and services, including Cambridge Cinemas, CitiFinancial, H&R Block and Arby’s.

About Greenberg Gibbons

Greenberg Gibbons is one of the Baltimore-Washington region’s premier developers of mixed-use, town center and retail properties. The company’s portfolio includes more than four million square feet of existing and new development. Its signature projects include the award-winning revitalization of Hunt Valley Towne Centre and Annapolis Towne Centre. For more information, visit www.ggcommercial.com.

###